

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Snap away musical instrument picks. A sheet of material is provided that has a plurality of musical instrument picks formed therein by a cut line around the perimeter of the picks except for uncut web areas around each pick. A pick can be detached from the card body by severing the web to remove a pick when desired. The sheet of material can be sized to be carried in a purse or wallet or hung on a microphone stand and the like for easy access.
